

Women's Page

Janet Sterling, Society Editor, Phone 347W

SPENDTHRIFTS

Autumn winds blow and the
aspens sway
Like drunken pirates in days of old,
Recklessly, wantonly tossing away
Their leafy treasure, thin coins of gold. —Gwen Travis

Dr. Donald Sharp Fredrickson Married In Holland

Dr. Donald Sharp Fredrickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Fredrickson of this city and Miss Henrietta Priscilla Eekhof, daughter of the late Professor A. Eekhof and one time president of Leyden University of Amsterdam, and Mrs. A. Eekhof of Wassenaar were married September 5 in Holland. The wedding took place in the Dutch Reformed church at Wassenaar, a suburb of The Hague and was a formal ceremony performed by Dr. Sillevius Smitt, chaplain of the Royal Dutch Navy.

The bride wore a beautiful wedding gown fashioned from white brocaded satin and threaded with gold. It was made along the traditional lines with a V-neckline, long sleeves and a long full train. Her veil held in place with a coronet of orange blossoms, fell to the full length of the train.

She was attended by three little girls, one, a junior bridesmaid wore a long white dress and white mitts and carried a bouquet of flowers. The other girls were Scottish pages, dressed in Scottish attire. They carried her train. All were close friends of the family.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in accordance with the Dutch traditions.

Later Dr. and Mrs. Fredrickson left for a two weeks wedding trip in France and Switzerland. Dr. Fredrickson returned on September 23 to Boston where he is assistant in medicine at Peter Bent Brigham hospital and on the faculty of Howard Medical school. Mrs. Fredrickson will join him as soon as immigration regulations are completed.

Koret of